

Center for Latin American and Caribbean Studies

CLACS Undergraduate Fellowship Program: 2016-2017

The Center for Latin American and Caribbean Studies (CLACS) Undergraduate Fellowship Program allows Brown undergraduate students with an interest in Latin America and the Caribbean, and academic excellence, to explore in-depth what it means to work in/on the region. This fellowship program is open to students from all concentrations.

- Fellows attend private, lunchtime talks with a range of public and private sector leaders.
- Fellows will have the opportunity to be hired for paid work as Botín Peer Liaisons, student guides for visiting scholars from the region in October. The application for Botín Peer Liaisons will be released on Brown Student Employment in August, 2016.

Please email the following information to CLACS Undergraduate Coordinator Emma Strother, emma\_strother@brown.edu:

1. Applicant Information Form
2. Resume
3. Unofficial Brown Transcript
4. Personal Statement on why you wish to become a CLACS Undergraduate Fellow and how your interests/previous work apply to Latin America and the Caribbean — one page, Times New Roman, 12-point font, one-inch margins.

The deadline for applications to the CLACS Undergraduate Fellowship Program for the 2016-2017 academic year is April 4, 2016.