

Five Decades of Development Studies:
A Symposium to Celebrate SCID's 50th Anniversary

Joukowsky Forum – Watson Institute
October 30, 2015

- 9:30-9:45 Welcome and introduction
- 9:45-10:45 “Trends in Development Studies as Seen through 50 Years of SCID”
Presenters: Peter Evans, and Barbara Stallings
- 10:45-11:00 Break
- 11:00-12:00 “Paradigms, Programs, and Policy Rules: The Evolving Role of International Organizations in Development Policy”
Presenters: Sarah Babb and Nitsan Chorev
Commentator: Barbara Stallings
- 12:00-1:30 Lunch (by invitation only)
- 1:30-2:30 “Changing Perspectives on Inequality and Development”
Presenter: Frances Stewart
Commentator: Peter Evans
- 2:30-3:30 “Democratization and Political Representation in Highly Unequal Societies”
Presenter: Ken Roberts
Commentator: Patrick Heller
- 3:30-4:00 Break
- 4:00-5:00 “Is Liberal Democracy Feasible in Developing Countries?”
Presenter: Dani Rodrik
Commentator: Peter Gourevitch
- 5:00-5:30 Where is the Comparative Study of Development Headed?
Discussion moderated by Peter Evans