CAPES / Brown Visiting Professorship

The Brazil Initiative is pleased to announce the creation of a new chair for a senior visiting professor from Brazil, in collaboration with CAPES, the Brazilian Federal Agency for Support and Evaluation of Graduate Education. This new visiting professorship seeks to deepen academic exchange and broaden knowledge production between Brown University and Brazilian institutions of higher education.

Eligibility

- must have completed doctorate
- must have Brazilian nationality and not have US citizenship
- must be accredited as a teacher and mentor in a graduate program recognized by CAPES
- must be engaged in full-time academic activities
- must not have scholarship or receive financial benefit from other Brazilian agencies
- must be living in Brazil at the time of application and throughout the selection process

Funding

- monthly stipend of $5,000, for up to nine months
- assistance with moving costs, up to $2,000
- health insurance
- round-trip airfare
- housing will be provided by Brown University, as well as access to services and facilities in accordance with the standards of visiting faculty

Application process and deadline

Applicants should apply by internet no later than October 14, 2013. Application materials are available online at:
capes.gov.br/cooperacao-internacional/catedras/catedra-capes-universidade-de-brown

Preliminary results will be announced in November of this year, and the final results will announced in December.

Inquiries should be addressed to:
brown@capes.gov.br