Racial Inequality Post-Doctoral Fellowship

Brown University invites applications for a two-year Post-Doctoral Fellowship in Racial Inequality to be jointly shared by The Watson Institute and the Center for the Study of Race and Ethnicity in America. We seek a scholar with interests in racial inequality/structural racism in the post 1970s U.S. in areas such as: urban poverty, social and cultural theories of racism, gender, segregation, housing or welfare.

The successful candidate will teach one course per year in a Watson Institute related program and collaborate on the design of CSREA programming each year on a key topic in contemporary racial inequality studies.

Scholars with a Ph.D. in Sociology, American Studies, Political Science, History, Social Theory, African-American Studies or a related discipline in the Humanities or Social Sciences will be considered. Dissertation must be signed by August 1, 2015.

This two-year Postdoctoral Fellowship is not renewable. Candidates should submit a letter of application, CV, a writing sample (15-20pp), a personal statement (1 page) and the names and addresses of three referees to \_apply.interfolio.com/27661. Review of applications will begin December 15. The appointment will be effective August 1, 2015.

Brown University is committed to fostering a diverse and inclusive academic global community; as an EEO/AA employer, Brown considers applicants for employment without regard to, and does not discriminate on the basis of gender, race, protected veteran status, disability, or any other legally protected status
