

Center for Latin American and Caribbean Studies

CLACS Undergraduate Research Awards

CLACS is pleased to announce a competition for awards of up to $500 in support of undergraduate research.

What & Where? Expenses related to travel for thesis research or conferences (if relevant to research interests) in the United States or a country in Latin America or the Caribbean are eligible.

Who? All undergraduates are welcome to apply, however, preference will be given to (1) concentrators in Latin American and Caribbean Studies; (2) members of the CLACS Undergraduate Fellows program. Following their travel, award recipients must present on their supported research at a CLACS Back from the Field panel.

When? There are two deadlines per year: Nov 1 for fall semester and April 3 for spring semester.

Application Requirements:

- Submit a single PDF containing the following materials to kate_goldman@brown.edu with the subject heading “CLACS Undergraduate Research Awards Application”:
 1. Cover page with name, email address, dates for which funding is requested, and research project title
 2. A statement of the research objectives and design (maximum 500 words)
 3. Detailed, itemized budget including other sources of support applied to (indicate whether they have been received and/or when the notification date is)
- Separately, ask a professor (for example, your thesis advisor) to submit a letter of recommendation to kate_goldman@brown.edu

Email kate_goldman@brown.edu or visit our website for more information.