

MCM 0903B

Visions of Algeria: Revolution, Visuality, and the Potentialities of History

Tuesdays 4-6:20pm

Instructor: adelbenbella@brown.edu

Guinean Revolutionary Amílcar Cabral once famously said that “Christians go to the Vatican, Muslims go to Mecca, revolutionaries go to Algiers.” In this class, we will ask the question of Algeria beyond the simple area study or historical inquiry, as a way to explore such vast concepts as visibility, colonialism, nationalism, revolution, and the writing of history.