

UNDERSTANDING MODERN TURKEY Through Film, Literature, and Media

A New Course @ Brown!

A critical partner of both East and West, Turkey is the world's 12th-largest economy and home to more than 80 million people. In the 21st Century, Turkey has undergone tremendous societal and economic transformations, positioned itself as a source of regional stability, and provided safe haven to more international refugees than any other country in the world. Yet there remains limited understanding of modern Turkey, its society, its culture, and its dreams and aspirations.

UNDERSTANDING MODERN TURKEY THROUGH FILM, LITERATURE, AND MEDIA will offer students greater insight into modern Turkey. Whether preparing for a business or diplomatic career in the region, or seeking a greater understanding of regional politics, economics, history, and sociology, students will embark on a fun and exciting evaluation of modern Turkey via a wide range of media and sensory experiences including film, literature, print and broadcast media, music, and cuisine.
