

APPLY NOW

MA in Near Eastern Studies at the NYU Hagop Kevorkian Center

VIRTUAL
OPEN HOUSE

November 28, 2018
12pm (EST)

INTERDISCIPLINARY CURRICULUM

Students pursue individual interests, such as our joint Global Journalism, Museum Studies & Business degrees. They take courses from across the university, such as international relations, history, anthropology, and much more.

FUNDING OPPORTUNITIES

Academic and merit-based scholarships, work-study positions, Foreign Language and Area Studies Fellowships (FLAS), as well as funding for intensive summer language and research trips for eligible students.

LANGUAGE TRAINING

Expert language instruction in Arabic, Hebrew, Persian, Turkish, and Urdu.

REAL-WORLD EXPERIENCE

Internships can be taken for credit at renowned institutions across New York City.

Questions?

Check out our website:
<http://as.nyu.edu/neareaststudies.html>
Email us at: Kevorkian.Center@nyu.edu or call us at: (+1) 212.998.8877

Virtual Open House Registration
<http://bit.ly/KEVO-VirtualOpenHouse>

NYU

HAGOP
KEVORKIAN
CENTER
NEAR EASTERN STUDIES NYU

#NYUKEVO