

A. ALFRED TAUBMAN CENTER for Public Policy and American Institutions

Brown Bag Series

“One Year Later, Obama and Capitol Hill: Is Health Reform Dying?”

Richard Arenberg

Adjunct Lecturer in Public Policy and Political Science

12:00 Noon

Tuesday, March 2

Taubman Center Seminar Room
67 George Street

Chattanooga Times Free Press

Richard Arenberg is a 34 year veteran of Capitol Hill. He served as Chief of Staff and/or Legislative Director to former Majority Leader George Mitchell, and U.S. Senators Paul Tsongas and Carl Levin. He teaches courses in public policy and political science at Brown, Northeastern and Suffolk Universities. He will discuss the first year of the Obama Administration and the prospects for health reform legislation.