

Major Trevor J. Tingle

CH-53E Helicopter Pilot

Major Tingle grew up in San Diego, California. He commissioned in the Marine Corps in 2007. He is married to Victoria and has two sons, Connor (9) and Koven (6) and one daughter Kyler (1) with another child due in December.

Academic Achievements:

- Master of Business Administration from University of Arizona Global Campus.
- Bachelor of Arts from University of California at Davis, in Sociology with emphasis in Organizational Studies.

Professional Achievements:

- Weapons and Tactics Instructor
- Air Mission Commander
- Assault Flight Leader
- Flight Leadership Standardization Evaluator
- Night System Instructor
- Aviation Safety Officer
- Crew Resource Management Instructor

Professional Assignments:

- Logistics Officer and Aviation Safety Officer with Marine Heavy Helicopter Squadron 466 (HMH-466)
- Future Operations Officer with HMH-466
- Pilot Training Officer and Weapons and Tactics Instructor with HMH-463
- Marine Aviation Training System Site Hawaii Officer in Charge
- Operations Officer with HMH-462
- Aviation Maintenance Officer with HMH-462
- Officer in Charge (OIC) for CH-53E detachment with VMM-165 (REIN) in support of 11th Marine Expeditionary Unit Deployment 21-2
- Fellow at the Watson Institute of International and Public Affairs

Operational Experience:

- Major Tingle has served abroad in multiple operational assignments. Over the course of these assignments, he has visited the shores of Guam, Philippines, South Korea, Japan, Singapore, Jordan, Bahrain, Kuwait, Israel, Saudi Arabia, Djibouti, and Afghanistan
- He has served in two combat deployments to Afghanistan (2012 and 2014) with HMH-466
- He recently participated in the coordination, planning, and preparation for Non-Combatant Evacuation Operations (NEO) and Military Assisted Departure (MAD) of embassy personnel from Addis Ababa, Ethiopia.

Personal and Academic Interests:

- Surfing, Golfing, and outdoor adventures with family
- Interested in Chinese Foreign policy and International Security

Personal Awards:

- Strike Medal with numeral 9 for taking enemy fire and aviation leadership in combat
- Meritorious Service Medal for duties serving as detachment OIC during Marine Expeditionary Unit Deployment
- Navy and Marine Corps Commendation Medal
- Navy and Marine Corps Achievement medal
- Korean Service Medal for sustained operations on the Korean Peninsula
- Sea Service Deployment Ribbons for five overseas deployments