

INFO SESSION

Information Session on Department of State Internships, Fellowships, and Careers

Wednesday, September 25, 2019 | 6:00-7:00p
Joukowsky Forum, Watson Institute

Thinking about signing up to take the Foreign Service Officer Test and want to know more?

Curious about domestic and foreign internship and fellowship opportunities with the State Department?

Want to use your Arabic, Mandarin, Portuguese, or Spanish skills with the State Department abroad?

Join Diplomat in Residence for New England, Philip Beekman, to learn more about career and student opportunities with the Department of State. Application deadlines for summer internships are in early October. Join this session to learn how to prepare now to submit a strong application. Not just for political science, international affairs, or languages concentrators – we are also actively recruiting from the fields of business and finance, computer science and information technology, and more!

All concentrations welcome!
